Sir Adrian Solomons Law Bursary

The Directors of Everingham Solomons are delighted to announce that the successful recipient of the Sir Adrian Solomons Memorial Law Bursary Miriam Hicks, a former student of Quirindi High School was formally awarded the Bursary this week.

Miriam has excelled throughout her High School academically and has enrolled in a Bachelor of Criminology/Bachelor of Laws at the University of New England.

Miriam joins numerous other recipients of this Bursary, first of which was awarded in 1998.

We take this opportunity of wishing Miriam well in the forthcoming academic year and look forward to her joining us for her work experience during the course of her studies and are pleased to be able to provide some financial assistance to her in her initial year of study.

We are confident that Miriam will excel in her studies as she has done so throughout her School years.

We remind those who have just commenced Year 12 who have an interest in pursuing a career in Law that you should endeavour to contact your Careers Advisor or Form Advisor to liaise with us to obtain details of the Bursary for the forthcoming year.
